

Widow Kip (#me too)

Kevin Whalen

Mrs. Kip - was sweet as pie - Mr. Kip - had the Devil in his eye
He only got mean when he got drunk - Means he was mean - every day of the month

Mrs. Kip - getting water from the well - Mr. Kip - starts giving her hell
He hit her once – then he hit her twice - Grabbed her neck - like a tightening vise

Mrs. Kip – she’s seeing stars - but kicks real hard into private parts
Mr. Kip – doubles over in pain - She hit him with a bucket – out spilled his brains
*Into a very, small little pile

Widow Kip -- Widow Kip
Do her right, she gona be your friend - Do her wrong, she gona do you in
Do her right, she gona be your friend - Do her wrong, she gona do you in

Clyde came up - from the Georgia State - Head full of anger - heart full of hate Needed some grub and a place to sleep - Widow Kip - she had vacancy

Things went well – till late that night – Clyde opened her door – switched on the light “Supper was good - but I want a little more” - Clyde stepped in - kicked shut the door

He pulled out a knife – it was sharp and straight - But, Widow Kip- she pulled a thirty eight
Clyde said “Widow, let’s talk this thru” - She said “Tell it to the Devil” and her aim was true
*Right between his beady little eyes

Widow Kip -- Widow Kip
Do her right, she gonn be your friend - Do her wrong, she gona do you in
Do her right, she gona be your friend - Do her wrong, she gona do you in

Young Emmy Lou – from the farm next door – helped widow kip, with all her chores
Out at the shed, she was fetchin wood - she turned around - there Lenny stood

Lenny wandered over from the Tennessee line –he was a deadbeat dude with a dirty mind
He grabbed Emmy Lou – quite lecherously - she couldn’t get free – so Emmy Lou screamed

Widow kip she was pitchin hay – heard the scream, went running that way
Her pitchfork had...4... long.... tines - every single one pierced Lenny’s behind
*He got stitches in his butt and in his britches

Widow Kip -- Widow Kip
Do her right, she gona be your friend - Do her wrong, she gona do you in
Do her right, she gona be your friend - Do her wrong, she gona do you in
Do her right, she gona be your friend – Do her wrong, she gona dooo yooou innnn
