

Where the Spirit Meets the Bone

Kevin Whalen

Down where the spirit meets the bone
You're nothing but alone
You cannot barter – cannot trade
Every debt here must be paid
Stand tall - but be afraid
No one's coming to your aid
You're nothing but alone
Down where the spirit meets the bone.

Down where the spirit meets the bone
Can't make amends - cannot atone
There are no bargains to be struck
You get no help from lady luck
Wrong move you get stuck
Just one way thru this muck
Can't make amends - cannot atone
Down where the spirit meet the bone

Heart and soul – guts and skin
Dreams and blood – mingle deep within
This is where you lose or win
But you are on your own
Down where the spirit meets the bone

Down where the spirit meets the bone
Cannot leave until you've known
That here you cannot compromise
Or try to rationalize
Here truth confronts lies
Just one answer – no why's
Cannot leave until you've known
Where the spirit meets the bone.

Heart and soul – guts and skin
Dreams and blood – mingle deep within
Face your good deeds – face your sins
But you are on your own
Down where the spirit meets the bone
You're on your own
Down where the spirit meets the bone.
